Gender الجِنْس

There are 2 types of Gender in Arabic:

i. Masculine (مُذَكَّر)

ii. Feminine (مُؤَنَّث)

The DEFAULT GENDER for an إسم is MASCULINE. There are 6 categories of feminine words. If a word does not fall into one of these six categories, it is masculine.

Feminine Gender: 6 Categories

There are 6 categories of Feminine Gender in Arabic:

1. BIOLOGICALLY FEMININE. This refers to words that are Feminine by Nature.

   Example:

Sister	أُخْتٌ
Mother	أُمٌّ
Cow	بَقَرَةٌ

There are 6 categories of Feminine Gender in Arabic:

2. WORDS THAT END IN ة or اءْ or ى : When a word has THREE LETTERS and those three letters are followed by ة or اءْ or ى the word is considered feminine.

Example:

The big one	الكُبرَى
Mercy	رَحْمَةٌ
Black	سَوْدَاءُ
Prayer	صَلَاةٌ

3. BODY PARTS IN PAIRS: Body parts that come in pairs are feminine, both in the dual and singular forms.

lip	شَفَةٌ	ear	أُذُنٌ	hand	يَدٌ
foot	قَدَمٌ	leg	رِجْلٌ	eye	عَيْنٌ
shin	ساقٌ	cheek	خَدٌّ	elbow	مِرْفَقٌ
ankle	كَعْبٌ	heel	عَقِبٌ	shoulder	مَنْكِبٌ

4. SPECIFIC NAMES OF PLACES[1]: Most specific names (proper names) of places are feminine. The word school or masjid is not a specific name of a place.

   Example:

Egypt	مِصْرُ	Sudan	السُوْدانُ	America	أَمْرِيْكا
Morocco	المَغْرِبُ	Yathrib	يَثْرِبُ	Makkah	مَكَّةُ

[1] There are exception to this rule

5. NON-HUMAN PLURALS: All non-human plurals are considered feminine. This holds true regardless of the gender of the singular form.

Example:

Cars	سَيَّارَاتٌ
Masjids	مَساجِدُ
Books	كُتُبٌ

6. FEMININE BECAUSE THE ARABS SAID SO: These feminine nouns do not possess a feminine sign in their word structure but they are feminine because Arabs said so.
   Example:

Land	أَرْضٌ	War	حَرْبٌ
Wind	رِيْحٌ	Sky	سَماءٌ
Well	بِئْرٌ	Sun	شَمْسٌ
House	دارٌ	Person	نَفْسٌ
Cup	كَأْسٌ	Fire	نارٌ
Wine	خَمْرٌ	Bucket	دَلْوٌ
Hellfire	جَهَنَّمُ	Path	سَبِيْلٌ
Hellfire	سَعِيْرٌ	Path	طَرِيْقٌ
		Staff	عَصا

Number العدد

All words in Arabic have :

- A singular version مُفْرَدٌ
- A pair version مُثَنَّى and
- A plural version جَمْعٌ

The singular and pair are standard and easy to recognize. They are the first and second columns of the مسلم chart. When it comes to plurals, however, there are four types. It needs to be discussed.

Number العدد: 4 types of Plural

1. The sound masculine plural
2. The sound feminine plural
3. The broken plural جَمْعُ تَكْسِيرٍ
4. The plural by meaning

The sound masculine plural

- The sound masculine plural refers to the third column in the masculine version of the مسلم chart.

Plural	Duel/Pair	Singular	Status
مُسْلِمُونَ 3R	مُسْلِمَانِ 2R	مُسْلِمٌ 1R	⟵ رَفْع
مُسْلِمِينَ 3N	مُسْلِمَيْنِ 2N	مُسْلِمًا 1N	⟵ نَصْب
مُسْلِمِينَ 3J	مُسْلِمَيْنِ 2J	مُسْلِمٍ 1J	⟵ جَرّ

Table 1: Sound Masculine Plural of the Muslimun Table

The sound masculine plural (Cont.)

Plural
مُسْلِمُونَ	3R
مُسْلِمِينَ	3N
مُسْلِمِينَ	3J

Sound Masculine Plural

- This type of plural is used only for beings of intellect including humans, angels and jinn.
- It is also used for mixed groups that include both men and women
- This type of plural is known as a sound plural because it follows a specific pattern for singular $\longrightarrow$ plural transition as shown.
- Example: عَالَمِينَ مُفْلِحُونَ

The sound feminine plural

- The sound feminine plural refers to the third column in the feminine version of the مسلم chart.

Plural	Duel	Singular	Status
مُسْلِمَاتٌ 3R(f)	مُسْلِمَتَانِ 2R(f)	مُسْلِمَةٌ 1R(f)	⟵ Rafa (Doer)
مُسْلِمَاتٍ 3N(f)	مُسْلِمَتَيْنِ 2N(f)	مُسْلِمَةً 1N(f)	⟵ Nasb (Details of verb)
مُسْلِمَاتٍ 3J(f)	مُسْلِمَتَيْنِ 2J(f)	مُسْلِمَةٍ 1J(f)	⟵ Jar (after OF)

The sound feminine plural (Cont.)

Plural
مُسْلِمَاتٌ	3R(f)
مُسْلِمَاتٍ	3N(f)
مُسْلِمَاتٍ	3J(f)

Sound Feminine Plural

- This type of plural is used for both beings of intellect and inanimate objects.
- It cannot be used to refer to mixed groups (a group made up of both men and women).
- This type of plural is known as a sound plural because it follows a specific pattern for singular $\longrightarrow$ plural transition as shown.

Broken Plural

- Broken plurals are plurals in which there is no specific pattern for singular ⟶ plural transition. In order words the original word (i.e. singular) is broken when you get the plural form.
- Example in English: In regular words: cat->cats but for broken plural goose->geese, child->children, mouse->mice
- Example in Arabic: This Singular⟶Plural is wrong مَسْخِد ⟶ مَسْخِدُونَ.
  The correct form is مَسْخِد ⟶مَسَاخِد
- Because broken plurals do not have an ending combination that indicates that they are plural, they tend to look like singular. The only way to differentiate between them is to memorize them.
- Broken Plural in Arabic plays an important role in grammar.

Broken Plural: Example

Below are some common broken plural patterns that appear in the Quran.

المعنى	جمع	مفرد	المعنى	جمع	مفرد
one of a pair	أَزْواجٌ	زَوْجٌ	witness	شُهَداءُ	شاهِدٌ emotional heart	أَفْئِدَةٌ	فُؤَادٌ	blessing	نِعَمٌ	نِعْمَةٌ
woman	نِساءٌ	اِمْرَأَةٌ	prophet	أَنْبِياءُ	نَبِيٌّ

[1] Image NAK Textbook page 39

Plural by Meaning

- There are words that appear to be singular but are considered plural because they have a plural meaning in that they refer to a group comprised of many members. (In English we have "collective nouns")
- Examples:

المعنى (Meaning)	الكلمة (Word)
a nation	قَومٌ
an argumentative group	خَصمٌ
people	نَاسٌ
generation	قَرنٌ

المعنى (Meaning)	الكلمة (Word)
an army	جُنْدٌ
family	آلٌ
family	أَهْلٌ

Broken Plural: Grammatical Impact

1. All non-human plurals are treated as SINGULAR FEMININE.
   Example: سَيَّارَاةٌ i.e. cars
2. Everything else is treated "as it is"
   a. The sound masculine human plural is treated as PLURAL MASCULINE Example: مُسْلِمُونَ
   b. The sound feminine human plural is treated as PLURAL FEMININE Example: مُسْلِمَاتٌ
   c. Words that are plural by meaning are treated as PLURAL MASCULINE Example: قَوْمٌ
   d. Human broken plurals are treated as PLURAL MASCULINE Example: رُسُلٌ

Type[1] القسم

- إسم can be either (i) Common نَكِرَة or (ii) Proper مَعرِفَة
- Default status is Common نَكِرَة.
- There are seven (7) categories of proper مَعرِفَة words otherwise the word gets its default status i.e. common.

Example in English. Common Noun: Boy, A boy. Proper Noun: The boy, Abdul Karim.

[1] Dream Text Book, page no.41

Type القسم : 7 Categories to be Proper

i. Specific Names. Example: مُوسَىٰ
ii. Pronouns. Example: هُوَ هُمْ
iii. Pointers. Example: ذَٰلِكَ
iv. Mudaf and Mudaf Elaihi agreement (Mudaf Elaihi will determine its Mudaf Type): Example in English: Messenger of Allah, here Allah is proper so messenger will be proper. Again in Book of a man, here a man is common so, Book must be common.

v. "THE" ال definite article. Example: ٱلْكِتَـٰبُ The book الشَّمْسُ The sun.

vi. The one being called. Example. يَـٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّاسُ O humanity.

vii. الَّذِى and its members "The one who/it"

Exercise: Proper and Common Noun[1]

- Indicate whether the following words are Common or Proper, and give the reason why:

Reason	Type	Word	Reason	Type	Word
	P / C	1. مُخْزِيَ الكَافِرِيْنَ		P / C	2. طَائِفَتَيْنِ
	P / C	3. جَنَّةٌ		P / C	4. نُوْحًا
	P / C	5. يا أُسْتَاذُ		P / C	6. القَالِيْنَ
	P / C	7. مُسْتَفْتٍ		P / C	8. طَائِرُكُمْ
	P / C	9. هؤلاء		P / C	10. الَّتِيْ

Exercise: Proper and Common Noun Answer Key

- Indicate whether the following words are Common or Proper, and give the reason why:

Word	Type	Reason	Word	Type	Reason
1. مُخْزِيْ الكَافِرِيْنَ	P / C	after-of is proper	2. طَائِفَتَيْنِ	P / C	default
3. جَنَّةٌ	P / C	default	4. نُوْحًا	P / C	proper name
5. يا أُسْتَاذُ	P / C	one being called (منادى)	6. القَالِيْنَ	P / C	ال

9. هَؤُلاءِ	P / C	اسم الإشارة	10. الَّتِيْ	P / C	اسم موصول

Special Note on: كُلٌّ

- Note that the meaning of كُلٌّ changes depending on the number and type of the مُضَاف إِليه (i.e. Next word) (Rule iv). Below are the possible scenarios:

  i If the مُضَاف إِليه is SINGULAR AND COMMON, the meaning is each and every Example: كُلُّ مَسجِدٍ each and every masjid.

  ii If the مُضَاف إِليه is SINGULAR AND PROPER, the meaning is the entire Example: كُلُّ المَسجِدِ the entire masjid.

  iii If the مُضَاف إِليه is PLURAL AND PROPER , the meaning is all of Example: كُلُّ المَسَاجِدِ all of the masjids.

Summary upto Chapter 3[1]

Chapter 4: Ism in Action

- Fragment: Recall the initial lesson, a fragment is more than a word but less than a sentence.

Fragments: Type

There are 5 ways fragments can be formed:

1. Harf of Nasb حرف النصب (Done)
2. Harf of Jarr حرف الجر (Done)
3. Idafa الإِ ضَافَة (Done)
4. Al Mawsoof and Sifah المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة
5. Fragments by Pointers

Fragments: المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة

- It is basically a pair of words: Noun+Adjective. In English we say "A big car" while in Arabic we say "A car big". So, in Arabic, first Noun then Adjective.
- Example: الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ The path(noun) straight(adj.)
- The first one (here الصِّرَاطَ) is an ordinary إسم called مَوْصُوف while second one (here الْمُسْتَقِيمَ) is the description or Adjective called صِفَة

Mawsoof and Sifa المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة

- Sifa/Adjective ← Mowsoof/Noun
- Example: الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ The path(noun) straight(adj.) Here الصِّرَاطَ is the مَوْصُوف and الْمُسْتَقِيمَ is the صِفَة
- One مَوْصُوف may have multiple صِفَة
  Sifa3 , Sifa2 , Sifa1 ← Mowsoof
- Both مَوْصُوف and صِفَة have exactly same 4 properties (i.e. Status/Number/Gender/Type) in short we call them (S/N/G/T)

Mawsoof and Sifa المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة Example Explained

- Both مَوْصُوف and صِفَة have exactly same 4 properties (i.e. Status/Number/Gender/Type)
- Example 1: مَسْجِدًا كَبِيرًا← A masjid big. ← A big masjid Both are N/1/M/C (i.e. Nasb, Singular, Masculine and Common)
  Some valid combinations:
  ✓ مَسْجِدٍ كَبِيرٍ ✓ مَسْجِدٌ كَبِيرٌ
  Some invalid combinations:
  مَسْجِدٍ كَبِيرٌ مَسْجِدٍ كَبِيرًا مَسْجِدٌ كَبِيرًا
- Example 2: مَسْجِدَانِ كَبِيرَانِ ← Two masjids big ← Two big masjids Both are R/2/M/C (i.e. Rafa, Duel, Masculine and Common)

Mawsoof and Sifa المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة Example Explained

- Example 3(!!!): مَسَاجِدُ كَبِيرَةٌ ← Many masjids big ← Many big masjids
  Note: Here, مَسَاجِدُ is Broken Plural for Non-human, so it must be treated as Feminine Singular (she).

✓ صِفَة : Here كَبِيرَةٌ has 4 properties:

1. Status: Rafa
2. Number: Singular
3. Gender: Feminine (ة at the end indicates feminine)
4. Type : Common.

✓ مَوْصُوف : Here مَسَاجِدُ has 4 properties:

1. Status : Rafa
2. Number : Singular
3. Gender: Feminine
4. Type : Common.

Both are R/1/F/C (i.e. Rafa, Singular, Feminine and Common)

Mawsoof and Sifa المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة Example Explained

- Example 4(!!!): حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا ← Our life lowest ← Our lowest life

✓ صِفَة : Here الدُّنْيَا has 4 properties:

1. Status: Rafa
2. Number: Singular
3. Gender: Feminine
4. Type : Proper. In order to match with the صِفَة its مَوْصُوف الدُّنْيَا get an ال that makes it proper.

✓ مَوْصُوف : Here حَيَاتُنَا has 4 properties:

1. Status : Rafa
2. Number : Singular
3. Gender: Feminine
4. Type : Proper. Because حَيَاتُنَا is an Idafa and its مُضَاف إليه is a pronoun (which is Proper) as a result the مُضَاف i.e. حَيَاتُ is also Proper. (See Type Section, Category II and IV).

So, both are R/1/F/P (i.e. Rafa, Singular, Feminine and Proper)

Mawsoof and Sifa المَوْصُوف وَ الصِفَة Example

- Recall: Both مَوْصُوف and صِفَة have exactly same 4 properties (i.e. Status/Number/Gender/Type)

Sura Fatiha: Apply

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝٢ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝٣ مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ۝٤

i. لِلَّهِ

- For Allah (swt). اللَّهِ لِ Here, لِ is a Harf of Jarr, so, the next word must be a Jarr, so it is اللَّهِ (e sound at the end.)
  4 properties of the word اللَّهِ: it is J/1/M/P (Jarr, Singular, Masculine and Proper)

- Now the next observation is if it is a مَوْصُوف To verify it it is needed to find the next word or segment (group of words) must have exactly the same 4 properties of the word اللَّهِ i.e. J/1/M/P Then we the next word or segment will be a صِفَة.

ii. رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

- Recall the conditions of a مُضَاف i) Light and ii) No ال. Condition of a مُضَاف إِليه i) It must be Jarr. Here رَبِّ is Light and has no ال and الْعَالَمِينَ is Jarr. Thats why the meaning is "Lord OF the worlds".
- 4P of رَبِّ are J/1/M/P(?). Because, its مُضَاف إِليه i.e. الْعَالَمِينَ is Proper. (Recall مُضَاف inherits its Type from its مُضَاف إِليه) 4 P of الْعَالَمِينَ are J/3/M/P

Remember: مُضَاف and مُضَاف إِليه is inseparable so treated as a single unit. Then what is the 4P of this unit?

Ans: 4P of the world رَبِّ i.e. J/1/M/P since رَبِّ is the main word of this phrase.

Note: This unit رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ and the main word اللَّهِ both have the same 4P i.e. J/1/M/P. That means the next unit is a صِفَة (Sifa No.1)

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝٢ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝٣ مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ۝٤

iii. الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

- 4P of الرَّحْمَٰنِ are J/1/M/P. It exactly matches the 4P of the main (مَوْصُوف) word اللَّهِ. So, it is another صِفَة (Sifa No. 2)
- 4P of الرَّحِيمِ are J/1/M/P. It exactly matches the 4P of the main (مَوْصُوف) word اللَّهِ. So, it is another صِفَة (Sifa No. 3)

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝٢ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝٣ مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ۝٤

iii. مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ

- Recall the concept of Chain of Idafa i.e. multiple OF.
  First, مَالِكِ يَوْمِ in this part مَالِكِ is مُضَاف and يَوْمِ is مُضَاف إليه. While considering يَوْمِ الدِّينِ in this part يَوْمِ is مُضَاف and الدِّينِ is مُضَاف إليه.

  مَالِكِ ⟶ J/1/M/P(?) يَوْمِ ⟶ J/1/M/P(?) الدِّينِ ⟶ J/1/M/P
  (this will be propagated to its previous and so on..)
- مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ is a single unit. 4P of this unit = 4P of the Main word مَالِكِ Which exactly matches the 4P of the main (مَوْصُوف) word اللَّهِ. So, it is another صِفَة (Sifa No. 4)

Overall Picture

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝٢ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝٣ مَالِكِ يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ۝٤

Figure 10: Summary So far.

✓Both Mowsoof and Sifas have the same 4P i.e. J/1/M/P

Fragments by Pointers إِسْمُ الإِشَارَة وَالمُشَارْ إِلَيهِ

- Pointers can be used to another إِسْم for form a fragment. The first one (i.e. pointer) is called إِسْمُ الإِشَارَة or Pointers. Second one is called المُشَارْ إِلَيهِ being pointed[1] .
  Example: This book. Here "This" is إِسْمُ الإِشَارَة while "book" is called المُشَارْ إِلَيهِ. As for Type,it is always Proper.

Plural جَمْعٌ	Singular مُفْرَدٌ	Gender
هَؤُلَاءِْ These	هَذَا This	Male
هَؤُلَاءِْ These	هَذِهِ This	Female

Table 3: Near Pointer

Plural جَمْعٌ	Singular مُفْرَدٌ	Gender
أُوْلَاءِْكَ Those	ذَالِكَ That	Male
أُوْلَاءِْكَ Those	تِلْكَ That	Female

Table 4: Far Pointer

[1] Terms are valid only for Fragments not for sentences

Properties of Pointers

i. Pointers are always Proper. Example: ذَٰلِكَ ٱلْكِتَـٰبُ i.e. This book, it indicates a particular book so it is Proper.

ii. They are non-flexible. Example:
إِنَّ ذَالِكَ
مِن ذَالِكَ
Note: Here, the pointer ذَالِكَ does not change because of the Harf of Nasb or Harf of Jarr. In the first case the word ذَالِكَ is مَنْصُوبٌ while the second one is مَجْرُورٌ .
So the status of pointers must be deduced from the context not from its ending sound.

iii. Pointers can be used to make either Sentence or Fragment.
Rule: If the pointer is followed by definite article AL ال then it is a Fragment otherwise it is a sentence. No ال make it a sentence.

iii. Pointers can be used to make either Sentence or Fragment.

Rule: If the pointer is followed by definite article AL ال then it is a Fragment otherwise it is a sentence. No ال makes it a sentence.

Examples:

- ذَلِكَ الْكِتَابُ That book (i.e. Fragment) ذَلِكَ كِتَابٌ That is a book (i.e. Sentence)
- هَذَا بَيَانٌ لِلنَّاسِ This is a clarification for human. (i.e. Sentence)
